Brocaded Beads $35

The pattern for these plump beads resemble the brocaded fabrics of the Renaissance, gleaming stones or pearls crisscrossed with gold or silver seed beads. The technique is simple, you'll enjoy varying the sizes and placement of beads to change the shapes, creating a handful of beads to adorn wrists, necklines, and dangle from earrings. Materials required.

Up and Over $90

This piece is a fun practice in understanding dimensionality; Two layers of tubular right angle weave, woven through each other, and built around each other while stitching is what makes this an interesting project. The class will start with practicing the cubular or tubular right angle weave and its particulars like how to turn a corner or connect one stitch to another. Once you have these basic techniques many variations are possible. Dangling from the tassels are pearls and faceted glass beads. Materials required.
